DUMESNIL, BELL & CO. SUPERIOR VIRGINIA TOBACCO.

NOW STILL TIME TO ADVERTISE. It you wish to command a fair share of our Spring is upon us, too, and everybody is looking around to find where they can bay to the best advantage. Don't expect them to go from one street to another. Hundreds have not time, and they read the advertisements in the Democrat and g. directly to buy. If your advertisement is not to the Domocrat, you may lose many chances to sell Hundreds read our paper every day. Our circulation in the city is increasing very rapidly, and in the country at an unprecedented rate.

The Democrat has the largest circulation wes at the present rate of increase, will soon have more subscribers than any paper published in the valley of the Mississippi. Our terms are moderate to prompt men. Every business man owes it to himself to increase his business as much as possible, and the best way to accomplish that end, is to ad vertise lu the Democrat, which is nuiversally read in the city and country

The first Monday in June is close at hand when the next President of the United States will be designated at Cincinnati. Whoever is nominated by the Convention, at that place, will be elected by the people, if the Democracy are only true to themselves. We congratulate them ou the unanimity of soutiment that now everywhere pre-Tails. There is no jarring of sentiments. The Convention don't assemble to make a creed; it is already mads. They have only to write it out and put it ou record. The s rougest resolutions in favor of the policy of the Kansas-Nebraska bill will no d ubt come from the North, and be most stronuously insisted on from that region. Our territorial policy being thus put before the country will be ratified by a popular verd ct; that, in our judgment, will sattle the question for this generation. Sound patriotic men everywhere look to that Convention as the hope of the country. It will not be a mere negative body, nor the race to succeed a negative one. There will be ue faltering in policy, object, or purpose. When the victory is wou, it will have a meaning not to be misinterpreted.

The constitution, and the policy of our fathers under it, will be sustained by the Democratic party. The federal government will not be allowed to be an agent to war upon the institutions of half the Union; the liberal policy to foreign emigrauts who seek here an asylum from oppres sion, will be sustained as the Republican party in the days of Jefferson left it. The odious proscription of men for their religion will meet an em phatic rebuke that will put it out of the political areus. There will be no more investments made in that stock. True, Americanism will be proclaimed by that Convoution, and ratified by the voice of a free people. The pestileut some that have been thrust into political contests, will find a quietns in the result next November.

dnty. We shall have a standard-bearer who will be a true man, whom we can support with pride it; and that is well known. Even the outrages platter of provisions, and a vast number of capaand pleasure. We can safely make that pledge in of the sixth of August might have been arrested clous tumblers, supposed to contain every thing passengers. Kentucky. It proclaims, as its sale basis, a contest of races and religious; but it is really a fighting for spoils. Its disciples profess a great horror of foreign allegiance; but, in fact, they owe allegiance to a lust of office, and little elec. It is the duty of the Democracy to give the vote of this State to the Democratic candida'e. The South should not be divided; for the opposition in the free States are waging a war upon this section of the Union. They make their calculations to carry most, if not all, the Northern States. In this, we hope and be lieve they will be mistaken; but it will be suicidal to risk the loss of a Southern State.

Let every Democrat be ready to do his whole

If Kentucky be true to hereelf, she will go with the other Southern States for the nominee of the Democratic Convention. It is well understood now, that the contest is between the Democratic an i Black Republican parties. The Know-Nothing division can only weaken the Democratic party South, if it does as much; and thereby aid her enemies. Shall Kentucky be found thus treacherons to the best interests of the country gener ally, and to the South particularly. Let it never be esid of this Commonwealth, that in such a crisis as this she proved fare and unreliable. It is itle to talk now of compromises. The issues before the country must be settled, not by half-way measures, but by a firm and resolute adherence to

The prospect is cheering. There is scarcely a chance for defeat; but vigilance is a duty all true common crisis that is before us. The elements of mout minister to England misch of, if they can combine, are formidable, and the success of such a combination would change the character of this government, and perhaps its destiny. Not only are the equal rights of the States in dauger, the peace and harmony of the two sec tions of the Union, but the cause of civil and reli confidence in the patriotism of the people, whenever the true issue is presented; but let not Kentucky have this year au ill-advised and unpa triotic record. Let her stand side by side with cism of race and religiou, and against the Northern crueade against our institutions. The Know-Nothings have made their nom inations for judicial offices. Caleb Logan, Esq., is nominated for the office of Chancellor. We understand that there were several candidates for the bonor: Logan, l'slcher, Haggin, Worthington Muir, Pirtle, and Harrison. The handmet was dropped on the euccessive ballotings, until Logan carried off the prize. He is understood to be the author of the ponderous articles against the Pope that have appeared in the organ. He was a lawyer of ability, but his fear of the Pope, we presume, had more than any hing else to do with his nomination

We see that a meeting of the faithful at Allausville, compliment the editor of the Journal for his detense of the reputation of Louisville. We don't think this city has need of such a de fender. She will repudiate all defense of crime here, and that is the point of the Journal's defense. Ha has done the injury, and his defense only ag gravates it. Let him abusa Louisville if he wants to benefit her; let him show that the city is no louger under his dictation, and that his counsels and defense are alike repudiated. This is just what Louisville needs to rectore her credit and prosperity. No consible man thanks him for defanding what is indefensible. He was chief agent in stiering up a war of races in Louisville, and producing the scenes that will ever remain a dark | cert on Mouday next. Madams will be assisted blood-stained pege in her history. His efforts are to defend himself, not Louisville. Every word he Mr. Charles Ward, the youthful plauist, and som says in her defense is that much injury.

If a thing is to be estimated by its cost Louisville should set a high value on Kuew-Noth ingiam. She has paid dearly for it. She had a claim to the glorious harvest of the present year, that all her neighbors are reaping; she gave it away for Know-Nothingiam, and her good name along with it. You who have property to sell or rent, how do you like the ruling?

against the patriots of Kansas, and the leaders are Subscriptions are being taken in New York to hended; and Reeder is missing. He threatened the United States Marshal whilst he was surrounded by his crowd, but United Sam's troops were not to be put off with threats. There will reight a ship with provisions and clear it for the Chattaneoga Advertiser.

A letter was received from the Bishop of the her borders. These facts have been set forth by the Democratispress of the city—accompanied, of course, with statements of their cause, and expressions of indignation at the organization whose freight a ship with provisions and clear it for the Chattaneoga Advertiser.

That is some confession; but are they the same men that were raving like savage Basts last summer? and if so, may they not get into the same condition again; and may it not be necessary, in order to prevent another St. Bartholomew's day, to slanghter them by wholesale, and roast men and women in their own houses' Are not some of these "potentates" of the Pope prepared to shoot down innocent American citizens?

Whilst this city has been taxed heavily to pay a police to protect persous and property; whilst sha is giving millions to railroads, ln order to in crease her population and wealth, it is enough to excite the judignation of all interested in her prosperity, to reflect that her population have been driven off, and suspicion and distrust created, until it is given out that Germans are satisfied now that they will be protected in person and property. The very announcement admits that it is questionable. Last August, notwithstanding the expeuse of the police, no protection was afforded to peace and order of the city.

This year has been a season of prosperity to all our neighboring cities. They have made rapid strides in population, and prosperlty beyond ex ample. Why has not Louisville partaken of the general prosperity. There is but one reason for advance. The opposition is divided. The branch in its effects by a manly resistance; by the arrest good in the drinking line from strawberry juleps, of it in this State is insignificant, as also in most and punishment of the offenders; but, unfortue down to claret sangarees. The Old Mill.

BY WILL W. HARNEY. Live and die! live and die! And the quaint old mill stands still:

And half across the rill.

The summer comes and the winter comes, The liohen hangs from the walls aloof, And the rusty nails, from the ragged roof, Drop daily, one by one.

The long grass grows in the shady pool, Where the cattle used to come to cool, Aud the rotting wheel stands still; The grav owl winks in the granary loft, And the sly rat slinks, with a pit pat soft,

From the hopper of the quaint old mill. The mill-wheel clickt, and the mill-wheel clackt And the groaning grooves once creakt and crackt And the children came and played; The lazy team, in the days of yore, Muuched their fedder at the old mill door.

Or drowsed in the grateful shade. But the good wife died, and the miller died. And the children all went far and wide From the play-ground by the dam: Their marble ring is grass o'ergrowu As the mossy foot of the rude grave stone

Where the old folks sleep so calm. But the miller's son, in the city thick, Dreams that he hears the old mill click, And sees the wheel go round: And the miller's daughter, thro' her half-shut eyes Can see her father, in his dusty guise, And the place where the corn was ground.

LOUISVILLE, KY., May, 1856.

[From the N. O. Orleanian.] AN OFFSET .- John H. Harney, Eiq., editor he Louisville Democrat-who, in the midst Know-Nothing riots, slaying and murderings, which disgraced that city some time since and when life was iusecure, and the hazard of de-nouncing the assassins great, shrank not from the esponsibility, nor feared the issue-has been nandromely complimented by a number of his fel-ow-citizens, for the firmness which he evinced and revotion manifested, in the cause of civil and reigious liberty. Ou a late occasion they presented (Candral Line Sore Nose Wasts and Flash Wound) im with a silver pitcher, as well for his zeal in the manner specified, as "for exposing the crime which have been the source of incalculable mis shief to the interests of Louisville." The complineut, besides being truly merited, was very oppor-une, and an office to the persecution of which Mr Harney was being made the victim by the heads of or interfere with a physician's prescriptions. the party which he had denounced, and whose it therel course and outrageous procedures he has not hesitated to declare, on every occasion, has driven off from Lonisville an industrious and cor-rect population, ruined its trade, and brought a esperous and thriving city to a condition reatly to be deplored!

Recently a portion of the mercantile classes and lealers, perceiving the rapid decay of the city, he loss of its commerce, etc., held a meeting and equested the papers to cease representing Louis ville as in a state of decadence; that is, to disguise he positive fact from outsiders, as though truth could long remain concealed, or, like the light of a candle, be hid nuder a bushel. The editor of the Democrat would not acquiesce in such a requist, nor cloak the reality from the public, more espe cially as the persons who decired concealment were amongst those who, by their acts, had effected the njury which they felt and complained of, and u to the present Mr. H. continues to show the evil results of the election riots. Irritated by his so loinz, his representing things as they really ex-ist, and the causes which produce them, they have endeavored to crush him by withdrawing from him their support, and inducing all others whom they could control to do likewise, id. est., all others of similar feeting, and imbued with the like injudi-tious prejudioes. Day after day orders to discon-tinue advertising and subscriptions to his paper each him; but the crussede got up against the la-repid gentleman, instead of causing him to quail it desist from rebusing the parties who brought about the consequences which they desire to cloak, only render him the more resolute and determined. A reaction, we are glad to uotice, has taken place, and the friends of Mr. Harney have arrayed them around him, and, as an evidence of their appreciation, have presented him with the testi-monial named. The Democracy of our city, who revers the true worth, and admire firmness and consistency, should, by all means, subscribe for the "Louisville Democrat." They will discover in it an able expounder of their principles, and in Mr. darney a fearless champion of their cause-devotd, capable, and zealous. Independent of these terling recommendations, we consider it the duty of all meu, when asystem of persecution is wrongly evoked against their fellows, to rally to their aid, and by so doing, frown down malevolence of the worst kind. We are indifferent as to party, oreed, or country in such cases—for this mode of crushing, by combination, is highly disreputable Elopement-Seduction-Adultery. Quite an excitement prevailed in the upper ward of our olty on Thursday morning, in consequence of a married man, named Wm. Silvee eloping with a young lady aged fourtson, the daughter of a respectable mechanic of the First Ward. The circumstances are of an aggravated obstacter. On Wednesday afternoon this gay lotharic, Sil-bee, hired a horse and carriage from Mr. Durfee, packed up his trunk and took it with him stating to his wife he would return in a day with him a considerable sum of money. He stopped for the nights to consider the nights bim, stating to his wife he would return in a day or two, drove around a few of our streets, and, by agreement, took in a young female passenger who was waiting for him, and away they went en ronte for Illinois. Toward dark they arrived in Soranton and sojourned with "mine host" Kressright, started, about eight o'clock, in pursuit of the fugitives, and arriving in Scranton discovered their whereabouts; they then procured a werrant from Justice Pier, for the arrest of Silabee, and proceeded to their room, where, by a little strata-gem, they got Silabee to arise from his bed to open the door—and to their consternation and shame, in rushed the nuweloume guests I and nothing but the inst and righteous veneration for the majesty the just and righteous veneration for the majesty of the law to punish the faithless husband and foul seducer, prevented them from inflicting sum-

Shocking Tragedy.

One of the most deplorable tragedles that ever occurred in our city took place last night at a co-tillion party at the house of Mr. Gorlitz, on Upres ligh street. It appears that at about half-part l o'cleck a young man named William Royse went to the house for the purpose of obtaining admle-sion to the bell. Mr. Samuel M. Belin, one of the city watchmen, who was acting as door-keeper, refused Rosse admission without a ticket, when he (R.) told Boliu that he had obtained a ticket from Mr. Berry Huddleson. The latter coming up about that time, Mr. Bolin asked him if he had given Royse a ticket, to which H. replied that he the coat and attempted to detain him. then drew a knife and struck at Bolin, the entering the breast just below the heart. Bolio staggered back, and in five minutes expired Royse and his two companions were immediately arrested and taken to the county jail. We shall make no comments on this deplorable affair till a judicial investigation is had, as it is possible we may be mistaken in some of our state ments. Mr. B. lin was one of our oldest citizens and had long served as an officer for the city and county, and his death under such circum is much to be deplored. The father of young Royse is also one of our oldest and most esteemed bin. Mr. Boliu leaves a widow who has lop oeen an invalid, upon whom this blow falls with crushing force. Judge Bicknell, this morning ordered the re-assembling of the Grand Jury fo the purpose of investigating this sad affair.

SPECIAL NULLUES. To the Public

OF THE UNITED STATES! As advertisement of Mr. UDOLPHO WOLFE, lately published. as I suppose, for the protection of his Schie-dam Schnapps against connerfeiters, has come under my observation; and, being engaged in the manufacture of Schledam Schna, pe, were I to let it pass without notice, I might be considered emong those he denominates "Pirates and Venders of Poison." But the im-mense patronage and success that has attended the sale of the article manufactured by me, and the opinion of competent judges as to its qualities as a beverage end to medicinal virtues, precludes the possibility of the idea that I am included among those he designs to impugn. No doubt he feels aggreed at the depreciation of the sale of his Schnapps, which is manifest to all, since min has been brought into competition with hisvot on'y have I succeeded in competing with him traility, but the constant and increasing demandfor my article will soon satisfy him that his cantion to the diseas of the "Southern and Western States" will avail him nothing as far as I am concerned. The character of my Schiodam Schnapps is too well estab-ished luthose States to be injured by any such invidions publication. The motive of his advertisement is bytomato every one, and feeling well satisfied that all such missless thrown at me by him will fall harmless at my feet, I will here, for the satisfaction of the public, publish my Copy Right, entered in the Southern Dis net of New York. on the Man of December, 1854 (COPY RIGHT.) GOPY BIGHT.)

The word Schiedam Schnappe is derived from a town n Holland, called "Shiedam," which is celebrated as a place of extensive juniper plantations and numerous istilleries of the above article, which has been known as Schnapps" for centuries. Does it not appear, now, poor and deceitful fer U. W. to attempt to make a wrong and untrue impression on the public by asserting that the name "Schiedam dehnapps" belongs exclusively to his article, and that all others are count-rfeits and impositions? U. W. has uo mouopoly, and no more right for the ole Importation of Schiedam Schnapps than anybody cise, and he may rest assured that I shall be the just to

J. A. RHONES, Esq.—Dear Sir: As I took your medi-ine to sell on consignment, "no cure no pay," I take pieasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three rothers who live in this piace, and their testimony is a sirspecimen of all I have received:

W.S. Conklin told me-"I had taken nine bottles of Christie's Ague Balsam, and continually rnn down while using it, nutil my lungs and fiver were congested to that degree that blood discharged from my month and boweis, so that all thought it impossible for me to ive through another chill! The doctors, too, did all they could for me, but thought I must die. Nothing lid me any good until I got RHORES' FEVER AND AGUE GURE, which at once relieved me of the distress and els, and produced a permanent cure in a short time." H. M. Conklin says: "I had been taking medicine of as good a doctor as we have in our county, and taken ny quantity of quinine and specifies without anya cood result, from 25th Angust to 17th December. But eeing how nicely it operated on my brother. I got a cted a permanent cure by using two-thirds of a bet-

The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is if no better tenor than the wast number of like certification. sates I have already published, and the still greater amount that is continually pouring in to me. One thing more. Last year I had occasion to CAU TION THE PUBLIC In these words:
"I notice one firm who have taken one of my general cir

Now I take pleasure in saying that the CAUTION re erred to the same "Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam" that is mentioned in the above certificate. There are seversi other industrious people who are applying to their poisonous trash all that I publish about my Fever and Agne Cure, or Antidoteto Malaria, except the certificates of cures, and the certificate of the celebrated chemist, Dr. James R. The character of the reply diverts the issue of any threatening consequences, except those necessarily resulting from the suspension of friendly interconres, between two governments at peace, if a dismissal takes place. It is understood in diplomatic circles that Mr. Crampton will leave the country immediately after receiving his passports and carry to the Sec-tetary and other members his legation, not inclu-ded in our dismissal; his object being to close the mhassy entirely, and thus emphasize the suspen sion of intercourse.

THE PARTY OF THE P RAILROAD! THIS GREAT WORK OF INTER

Baltimore, and 408 to Washington,) was opened to the Ohio river in January, 1863, and has now been fully sated and approved, both as a freight and passenger solidly constructed, fully equipped, and carefully connection with the entire West.

LOUISVILLE AND THE NATIONAL METROPOLIS are sold by this road, which runs direct to Washinston without the delay of passing through Baltimore. It is also the only line by which bayeage can be checked to Washinston from the West. At Baltimore the read makes a direct connection with the Railroad to Philadelphia and New York, &c.

Passengers going East from Louisville, may proceed by steamboat to Cincinnati, and there take the Kaliroad to connect with this line, or may leave Louisville by the Jefferspaville Baltimoral direct.

The Mail Steamers leave Louisville daily for Cincinnati, where they arrive so as to connect with the cars of the Little Mlami Railroad at A. K. (or 5 F. K.,) for Columbus, connecting there with Central Ohio Railroad, through Newark and Zanesville to Beileair, on the Ohio, opposite Benwood station, 4 miles below Wheeling. At this place the connection with the B. and O. Railroad is made direct. By express train of this route, the time from Cincinnatito Eatimore is less than 38 hours, and to Washington less than 39 hours.
